A Magnificent Stock.

This is not our comment on the variety and assortment of goods we are showing this fall but that of the buying public. And we do not believe that there was ever before shown in Frankfort such a stock. And from every article in our store you can not find one thing that is not absolutely dependable. We do not handle trash of any description—we do sell good goods cheap.

Men's Clothing

The patterns this fall are richer than we ever before saw in heavy clothing. We can sell you a good all-wool suit honestly made as low as $7.50. And at prices from $12 to $22.50 we can show you suits which we do not believe any merchant tailor in town can excel in any respect. These suits are strictly hand-made, the fit is superb and they will hold their shape.

Queen Quality

The full fall line of these shoes is now ready. There are about 20 different styles to select from. The fit, the wear, and the style of Queen Quality Shoes have given them the widest sale of any woman's made.

AT HIS OLD TRICKS.

It developed, on Friday, that star witness, W. H. Culton, had resumed business at his old tricks. During the recent Powers trial, at Georgetown, Culton was employed by County Attorney J. Lewis Cobb, of Richmond, to buy up the Commonwealth's witness claims in that case.

When the claims were presented at the Auditor's office for payment, it was found that Culton had raised the amount from $1,950.02 to $2,769.22, a difference of $819.20—a pretty comfortable little sum—which, together with his commissions, netted Culton something like $1,000. It is said that Culton has disappeared with his swag.

It will be remembered that Auditor Saml. H. Stone had dismissed Culton from his office for a precisely similar offense.

Mr. Cobb, the gentleman who thus loses, is a clever man and we regret to see him caught.

OFFICERS F. & C. RAILWAY ELECTED.

At the annual meeting, held on Tuesday last, of the stockholders of the Frankfort and Cincinnati Railroad, the following officers were elected:

Geo. B. Harper, President and General Superintendent.

D. W. Lindsey, Jr., Secretary.

Claude Bowles, Treasurer and Auditor.

Directors—A. D. Martin, W. O. Carriek, Chas. E. Hoge, W. F. Dandridge and H. P. Mason.

PROMINENT CITIZEN OF LEXINGTON DIES SUDDENLY.

Mr. Elliott W. Shanklin, one of Lexington's most enterprising citizens, Secretary of the Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, died suddenly in his office, at the Fair Grounds, on Friday afternoon. Mr. Shanklin was an energetic and popular gentleman and will be a great loss to the horse interests of this section. The funeral occurred from the First Presbyterian church, of which he was a member, on Sunday afternoon, and was largely attended.

BADLY HURT.

Two young men who live at Ottersville, near the edge of Henry county, by the names of Thos. Grimes and Henry M. Farthing, were driving along Wapping street, near the Catholic Church, when their horse became frightened and dashed out Wapping to the corner of St. Clair, by the gas company's office, where both men were thrown violently to the ground and Grimes' head came in contact with the curbing, cutting a gash some three inches long and requiring several stitches to close it. He was otherwise hurt about the shoulders and limbs. Farthing was badly shaken up and bruised, but not so seriously as Grimes. The wounded man was taken to Dr. C. A. Fish's office, where his injuries were attended by Dr. Fish and Dr. John G. South. He was afterwards carried to his home, contrary to the advice of his physicians, who feared concussion of the brain.

The thoroughly frightened horse turned towards the St. Clair street bridge and ran full tilt against the iron railing, tearing the wagon loose and rushed across the bridge in his terror. When the animal struck the iron railing it bounced him back like a rubber ball. The wagon was completely wrecked.

MONDAY'S SPEAKING.

U. S. Senator J. C. S. Blackburn and Judge Jas. H. Mulligan made speeches to the Democrats of this city and county, on Monday afternoon, at the Opera House. The room was well filled when the speakers commenced, but, by the time the Senator had concluded the crowd had dwindled to a small one. The crowd on the street was not perceptibly diminished by the speaking, as the people took more interest in sales than in politics.

VISITED PENITENTIARY.

The delegates in attendance upon the National Prison Congress, at Louisville, came to this city on Tuesday and made a visit to the local penitentiary.

VIOLIN AND VOICE.

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXIONS.

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at Paul B. Weitzel's.

"THE TELEPHONE GIRL."

That smart comedy, "The Telephone Girl," will be the attraction at the Capital Theatre, on Friday, Oct. 16, 1903. The seventh season of the favorite work of Hugh Morto and Gustav Kerker finds it more popular than ever as the generous patronage accorded it in other cities attests. The production this season is new in every detail. New faces in the cast, new girls in the chorus, new costumes on the girls and new comedy situations. May Bloom will be seen as the irresistibly funny, Hans Nix, inspector of telephones. His partner in the laughter making will be Nellie V. Nicols, a charming soubrette, a graceful dancer and a talented singer. Variety will be introduced in the efforts of Harry C. Lyons, a mimic who can simulate any sound from a dog fight to a phonograph, May F. Linden, a recruit from the Bostonian Opera Co., who has a magnificent soprano voice and the Misses Kendal and Thompson whose trade mark, "The Female Sousa's" is a guarantee of their musical ability. The original "all girly" chorus will again come in for its share of attention while Henry Clay and Elizabeth Clark will not be overlooked as Snuffles and Toots, the infants terrible. Others in the cast are Edward Lebay, Jules Bennett.

COUNTY COURT DAY.

Monday last was County Court day, and, owing to the heavy rains of Sunday night and that morning, there was an unusually large crowd in the city, the farmers being unable to do outdoor work. There was a considerable lot of cattle, mules and horses on the market. The low prices bid for cattle caused but few sales to be made. Mules and horses brought fairly good prices.
